MINUTE ENTRY

The Court has before it a Motion for Emergency Hearing filed by Respondent on April 20, 2004.

IT IS ORDERED setting oral argument on said Motion on June 7, 2004 at 2:30 p.m. on the following basis:

1. Time. Oral argument shall not exceed five minutes for each side. If extended oral argument is necessary, counsel must so advise the Court in writing no later than 10 days prior to the date set for argument for the Court to consider rescheduling oral argument.

2. Continuance. Any Motions or stipulation for continuance must be filed with the Court no later than 10 days prior to the date set for argument. After that date, no continuances will be granted except for extraordinary circumstances.

3. Response & Reply. Counsel are advised that if the answering memorandum is not timely filed in accordance with Court rules, oral argument may be vacated and the motion ruled upon summarily pursuant to Rule 7.1(b), Arizona Rules of Civil Procedure.
